

Pastor's Corner, May 2017

On Sunday, May 21st, two of our young people will be confirmed. But, what does that mean? And why do we confirm people anyway?

In the early church, when people wanted to become Christians, they went through a process called the catechumenate. This was a multi-year process during which people learned about the faith; the stories of the Bible, the resurrection of Jesus, the history of the Church, and what discipleship looks like. They attended church, but, because they were not members, were ushered out prior to Communion. This multi-year educational process ended with Baptism and entry into the church, with the celebration of their first Holy Communion.

Eventually, the church flourished and became the norm for society. Everyone was a Christian, if only in name. During the Middle Ages, when the fear of death was so high, mixed with the belief that only the Baptized go to heaven, people of all ages, including infants, were baptized to ensure their eternal salvation.

We kept the practice of infant Baptism—because it is a beautiful sign of God's pure grace that washes over us, apart from any act of our own. The downside, however, is that we lost those formative years in which adults chose to become part of the church and had years of education.

So, confirmation was born. For two years our 7th and 8th graders here at Pleasant Valley learn what it is to be a Christian and follower of Jesus. We study the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the 10 Commandments. We learn about Martin Luther and his reform of the Church. We read the Bible together and learn the stories of our faith. And, at the end, we confirm these young people into the Church and our congregation.

For years our young people are brought by parents and grandparents to Sunday school, worship, and events at church, maybe without any real choice. On Confirmation Sunday these two will stand before us and claim this faith as their own. Of course, like all of us, they will still have questions and doubts. They will have days when following Jesus seems like a burden. But, as God has claimed them in the waters of Baptism, so too, they confess their faith alongside us and become followers of Jesus, seeking to be God's hands and feet in the world in their daily lives.

Being a disciple is no easy task. And, sometimes we have trouble grabbing hold of this faith. So, come. Join us on May 21st and, with these young people, re-confirm your faith, hear the Good News of God in Jesus Christ, and welcome these two young men into the mission of the Church. Thanks be to God.

Peace,

Pr. JonPaul

Pleasant Valley Lutheran Church Council Minutes

Sunday, April 2, 2017

The meeting was called to order at 10:22 by President Kay Sands. Pastor JonPaul led us in devotion from Psalm 127 and a prayer.

NON-AGENDA – none

REPORTS

The secretary's report was reviewed.

The treasurer's report was reviewed. In January we collected $226.00 for the Mission Offering for the Parr family, an Altoona family that lost their home to a fire. We have collected $1,707 from the soup and sandwich suppers and the Lenten offering to send campers to Luther Park. Any money left will be put towards sending youth to the Youth Gathering in Houston in 2018.

The Pastor's report was read by the council. We discussed the visitation teams. The list will be adjusted to put Avis and Joe with the same team. Also, Catie McAleer has been helping Pastor during Lenten services and she has been doing a nice job.

There was no Ambassadors' report.

John made a motion to approve the reports. Second by Aaron. Motion carried.

OLD BUSINESS

EDUCATION – We have a sign-up sheet in the fellowship room for volunteers to teach Sunday School. At this point we don't know if we have any youth that would be able to attend a VBS program. Kay will get Alyssa Engedal's e-mail address to Aaron so he can contact Immanuel Lutheran in Eau Claire to find out if we could join them for VBS, if we have any interested youth. We will be discussing both Sunday School and confirmation during the council retreat.

PROPERTY – A date of April 22 has been set to repair/replace the ceiling fan nearest the balcony. Mark will supply a lift to take care of that. There was some discussion as whether to replace all fans while the lift is available, since they are all of the same vintage. The projector screen will be removed at the same time. Thrivent seed money has been approved for the fan project.

WORSHIP – The Synod still has us at 179 members. Although that number does not change the amount we send the Synod, a more accurate count would be 77 members.

We did not have a Thrivent meeting during Lent to brainstorm projects for which we could use Seed Money. We will do so during the council retreat.

NEW BUSINESS

The Gideons would again like to visit with the congregation. Pastor will try to have them come after Easter; April 23 or 30.

The Synod Assembly registration has to be in by April 14. Pastor JonPaul and Kim Vlcek will be attending. Monica may also be attending as a volunteer.

Kay will contact the King's Countrymen to see if they can play during the service on October 1, 2017. That is bazaar Sunday.

Mission offering – April – Habitat for Humanity – we have bulletin inserts or flyers to highlight the things they do.

May – Joy Glende

June – Luther Park

July –

August – Mondovi Weekend Backpacks

September – Eleva/Strum Weekend

Backpacks

OTHER

The county is going to pave the road in front of the church and put in a stop sign this summer. We will then need to repave the space between the county's pavement and the church. We will wait until they are done to see what we need to do. It will be coordinated with Schwennsens to see that it fits with the landscaping. John will talk to Julie.

There is one white table missing. Pastor will announce that in church and we will see if we can find it. Kay would like to borrow the 12/13 tables from the dining room from April 29 to May 7. She would also like to borrow the white tablecloths. That was approved.

Next council meeting will be May 7, 2017, at 10:30.

Ruth made a motion to adjourn. Second by Dale, Aaron, Roxie, and John. Motion carried. The meeting closed at 11:28 with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Ruth Poore, Council Secretary

Members present: Kay Sands, Pastor JonPaul, Roxie Ulness, Dale Anderson, Aaron Sands, Kim Vlcek, John Poore, Ruth Poore

Stories of Faith

Rhonda's story

I have always attended church at Pleasant Valley. When Gary and I were young, he played Joseph and I played Mary in the Sunday school Christmas program. I remember Sharon Anderson trying to dress us for the Christmas story; I remember Gary being a typical boy, and Sharon being sweet and patient with us. Gary and I were eventually married, and we traveled west for our honeymoon. We stopped in to see Pastor George and LaDora in North Dakota, and when we rang the doorbell, Pastor George greeted us and said, "I always knew you two would end up together!!"

No one plans to have a child with cerebral palsy, but God was always with us. One Sunday I was in church, feeling sad for my son, and I was wondering if my faith was enough to handle our circumstances. Then out of the blue, I heard Pastor Bill praying for Joe. It was as if Pastor Bill knew that was just what I needed, and I knew from then on that God would always be with us. We never know when something we might say or do may be just the thing that someone needs, and affects them for the rest of their lives.

I say the Lord's Prayer every night with Joe, and he now expects it. One night Tim was babysitting, and Joe would not fall asleep. Eventually he prayed the Lord's Prayer, and Joe went right to sleep. Those words, which he also hears at Pleasant Valley, seem to be a comfort for him. Thanks to all who have prayed for our family all these years.

If you have a faith story to share, please contact Ruthann, either after a church service, or by e mail at RuthiK6@gmail.com.
