

Pastor's Corner, April 2018

This year, twice now we have had two religious festivals coincide with secular holidays in a way that almost seems comical. On February 14th, we observed Ash Wednesday and the beginning of our Lenten journey by putting ashes on our forehead as a sign of repentance while culturally we were giving out candy and chocolate hearts for Valentine's Day.

Have you ever heard of the "left-handed Whopper" from Burger King? How about how Taco Bell wanted to purchase the Liberty Bell and rename it "Taco Liberty Bell."? Did you hear about the rookie pitcher in 1958 who could throw a 168mph fastball? You must have heard about the Swiss farmers who harvested spaghetti noodles from trees, right?

These are just some of the more popular April Fools pranks that news outlets and restaurants have had some fun with on April 1st, or April Fool's Day. All in good fun, they were successful at confusing and tricking those who didn't get the joke right away. Maybe some of you, too, have played April Fool's pranks on friends and family.

This year, Easter Sunday falls right on this day of jokes and pranks.

In our world and time of skepticism and declining Christian faith and participation in the life of the Church, this seems like a poor coincidence. Perhaps you have encountered people who think faith in Jesus is foolish.

But, you know what? Maybe the juxtaposition of Easter and April Fool's makes more sense than it seems at first glance.

In his first letter to the Corinthians, Paul writes, "The message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God (1 Cor. 1:18)."

It seems foolish that God in Jesus Christ would give up all power and authority to live among us and die on a cross. It seems foolish to think that God destroys the power of death by dying. It seems foolish to believe that death brings new life. It seems foolish to believe that through Christ's dying and rising you and I have abundance and fullness of life. The whole thing seems a bit foolish.

But not to us. To us who believe in God, to us who follow the Risen Christ, to us who have seen and experienced the work of the Holy Spirit among us, it is not foolishness. It is none other than the work of God in Jesus!

While some may claim that the Jesus story is foolishness, you and I have the assurance that through the Risen Jesus you and I receive forgiveness of sin, abundant life, and the promise of eternal life in God's Kingdom. That's not foolishness; that's faith in Jesus.

Christ is Risen! Christ is Risen, Indeed.
Hallelujah!

Happy Easter!
Pr. JonPaul

He is Risen!
Christ is Risen!

Council Minutes,

Sunday, March 4, 2018

The meeting was called to order at 10:37 by President Kay Sands. Pastor JonPaul led us in a devotional prayer. NON-AGENDA – Steve Nelson, representing Thrivent, was at the meeting to inform us about how our mutual funds are doing. He spoke about our Money Market Certificate and possible concerns the members might have. We also had some questions answered about the Thrivent Seed Money, which now needs to be gotten 17 days before the event. The Thrivent Choice money given to the church needs to be taken care of by the end of March.

REPORTS

The secretary's report was reviewed.

The treasurer's report was reviewed. Roxie highlighted some expenses. The Mission Offering for the Eau Claire Area Hmong Mutual Assistance Association Rice Program was $188.00.

The Ambassador's report highlighted what the Ambassadors are doing for the Easter egg hunt on Palm Sunday and the Easter morning breakfast.

Pastor reviewed his report. We have 2 or 3 youth registered for the up-coming Christ Jam, in Rice Lake on March 10, from 8:30 to 4:00 or 4:30. The $40 fee for each of the youth attending has been paid and we will also pay the fee for any adults attending. Annabelle will be attending as an observer. There will be a Synod vote on Friday to elect Annabelle as a Dairyland Representative for the Synod Youth Board. It is a 2 year position. Part of her duties will be to help plan an August Godstock and next year's Christ Jam.

A motion was made by Kay to accept all reports. Second by Dale. Motion carried.

OLD BUSINESS

Education – The teachers' training went well, but was not well attended. We still need a couple teachers for the rest of the year. The last Sunday School class will be May 13 with the church service and a cook out in the Olson Park.

Property – We talked about the necessity of using salt and sand generously whenever the melting snow re-freezes as it runs out of the landscaping. Dale and Sharon have been doing a good job keeping the areas salted and sanded.

Worship – will be working on the service in the park on May 13.

On March 18 the Synod will be here to discuss the results of the survey and the successes and pitfalls of a "Working Pastor", or bi-vocational pastor.

Setting a date for the council retreat in April was tabled until we have heard from the Synod as to the results of the survey. It will likely be on a Saturday morning.

NEW BUSINESS

The 9th annual Walking Together, a day of learning and workshops presented by the Synod on March 17. There's a $20 per person fee. It begins at 7 to 8 a.m. and goes until 3:30.

On April 22 the youth that will be attending this summer's Youth Gathering in Texas will be leading the music for our service. We will have communion.

The Synod Assembly will be held June 2 and 3 at UWEC. They will be electing a bishop this year. They would like to see a male and a female attendee at the cost of $250 per voting member. Registration is due by May 25.

Mission Offering:

March – Ronald McDonald House

April – 513 Free Pen Project

OTHER ITEMS – The Easter lilies will be available at the church on Palm Sunday so they can be delivered by the visitation committee.

Next meeting – April 8, at 10:30.

Ruth made a motion to adjourn.

Second by Dale. Motion carried.

We adjourned at 11:30. Closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Northwest Synod of Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

God's work. Our hands.

March 2018

Dear Saints of the Northwest Synod of Wisconsin,

This week I was honored to preach at the funeral of a 37 year old pastor who died too young and left behind a wife and a two year old daughter. It was an honor, but also just plain hard work. Not just for me, but everyone who sat in the overflowing sanctuary. But what would have been inestimably harder would have been doing that work without Easter...doing that work without Jesus. But I was able to stand in that pulpit and proclaim as clearly, and with as much certainty as I could muster, that death does not have the final say. I said these words: "Jesus died, and Jesus rose again, for a day just like this." Yes he did.

I often tell pastors, deacons and Synodically Authorized Ministers: "There are three high holy days in the year - Christmas, Easter and Mothers' Day. And don't ever forget Mother's day!" All three of these days celebrate the gift of new life. Each, in its own way, celebrates Jesus bringing new life into a world that can be dragged down by the fear and the reality of death.

So, what about Easter? First of all, I hope that everyone who reads these words takes/makes the time to go to church on Easter. Secondly, as you sit there in the lily scented church, surrounded by light and the sound of beautiful hymns, try to imagine your most difficult collision with death without the belief that Jesus really did rise from that tomb. Imagine burying a parent, or a child, or a spouse or a friend without that promise. Imagine. I cannot.

I cannot imagine, because I don't remember a day in my entire life when I didn't have that promise folded into me. It has strengthened me on days when it was all I had. The promise that "Jesus died, and Jesus rose again, for a day just like this." It is an awesome gift and one for which I am grateful.

This Easter, go to church. But don't just go there. Imagine someone who hasn't received the gift of that promise. If you can't think of anyone, well, you may need to get out and make some new friends! Because what you have been given, is too precious to hang onto by yourself. All of us, if we live long enough, will experience a "day just like this." It is inevitable. And we have a promise that will make a difference to someone who just cannot do that plain hard work by themselves.

They need Jesus. They need the promise of Jesus. They need the hope of Jesus. They need what you have been given. Please...share it. It is an honor.

Bishop Rick Hoyme
Northwest Synod of Wisconsin-ELCA
