

Resolutions

It's that time of year again. Every January, after we have finished ringing in the New Year with family and friends, we have the opportunity to set new goals for our lives. As the calendar ticks over from one year to the next, we look back on the previous year at the things we have accomplished, the ways we have changed, and the things that just didn't get done. And, we look forward, imagining the ways we could change our lives in the New Year. People often make resolutions to lose weight, find a new job, reconnect with old friends, and many, many more.

But, January gives way to February, which soon brings March and the busyness of spring and summer. By June, most of us barely remember what those resolutions were in the first place.

And, if we do remember, often our priorities have changed or the goal seems too far off to finish with only half of the year left. And that's when the guilt sets in.

I don't think there is anything wrong with setting New Year's resolutions. Setting goals and working to achieve those things can help give a sense of purpose and direction in our lives. Like any goal, sometimes we are able to accomplish what we set out to do and sometimes we do not. What we need remember, however, is that our value and our worth as people does not depend on how many friends we have, how much money we make, or what the scale says when we step on it.

In the season of Christmas and through the season of Epiphany, we celebrate God among us. We don't just remember Christ's coming into the world, but we live Christ's coming today. Christ comes into our lives and our communities to end sin, mend brokenness, and defeat death. That's not just something that happened 2000 years ago, it's something that is happening today.

Christ comes now, into this world and into your life, out of love for who you are—a Child of God, redeemed through the waters of baptism and an inheritor of eternal life. That doesn't change based on the things you do or don't do in this life. So, yes, set goals and see where they take you. Maybe you will find that new job, maybe you rekindle old friendships, and maybe you will lose that weight. But whether you do, or whether a year from now you are setting similar goals for 2020, know that you are a valuable human being, God loves you, and you will always have a place among your brothers and sisters in Christ at Pleasant Valley.

Peace,

Pr. JonPaul

Council Minutes

Sunday, December 2, 2018

The meeting was called to order at 10:35 by President Kim Vlcek. She led us in a devotional prayer.

NON-AGENDA - none

REPORTS

The secretary's report was reviewed.

The treasurer's report was reviewed.

The September Mission Offering for Feed My People was $261. The Thankoffering of $243.36 was sent to the Synod. Kay presented a report detailing the expenses incurred during the bazaar.

Pastor is on paternity leave and so there was no report. He will be setting up pastors to fill during his absence.

Pastor JonPaul needs a device (Chrome Book or other computer) to use for church business. We tabled that discussion until he returns from leave.

The Ambassadors report was e-mailed to us. There have been no additional Ambassador's activities except as tied to the preparation for the Christmas program.

A motion was made by Roxie to accept all reports. Second by Dale. Motion carried.

OLD BUSINESS

Education – Sunday School is running smoothly. We are looking for teachers to sign up for the year. There are some Christmas projects for the students that will be completed on December 16. There will be no Sunday School or Confirmation on the 23 or the 30 of December. Classes will resume on January 6, 2019. Dwight will check the list to see if we have a teacher.

Worship – Pastor JonPaul has chosen the setting for worship during Advent. The Christmas Eve program will be on Christmas Eve at 5:00 p.m. We will have communion.

Property – The installation of the TV monitor on the balcony, the water system, the flooring strip separating the kitchen and dining room, and the edges of the tables in the Sunday School room are all on the agenda to be fixed.

At this point, snow plowing is being shared between Mark Koser and Jerry Larson.

The letter to the neighbors, the prayer chain, and the congregational study information dissemination are all on hold until the Annual Meeting, January 27, 2019, or later.

Roxie called Tri-County to check on our anti-virus to see if that came with the bundling package. Our package covers activation for one laptop and one mobile device. We can add another laptop for $5.95 a month. We will add a box (modem?) which can be configured at TCC and we can pick it up and install it. Question as to whether we should reimburse Dan Herzberg for the anti-virus program he has been paying for.

NEW BUSINESS

Ruth will pick up 12 poinsettias for delivering poinsettias during caroling. Pastor JonPaul will connect with some possible new members.

Roxie is working on the 2019 Ministry Plan (budget) and the Opportunities to Serve for 2019.

We received a thank you from Monica and Kathy for paying their entry fee for Soul Support.

We will be receiving donation from Sadie Odegard to improve the access to Olson Park from the church. We may need to find a planner/installer to handle the job.

We looked at the Ministry Plan (budget) for 2019. We changed some totals. We also discussed Pastor JonPaul's contract and the vacation days/sick days or PTO days. The Plan will be presented at the Annual Meeting, January 27, 2019. Kim and Kay are going off council at that meeting, so we will need two volunteers to be on the council for 3 years.
