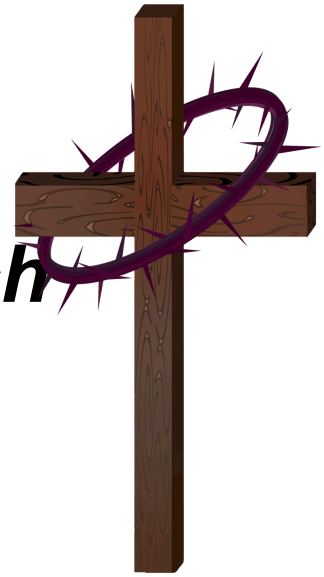
Pleasant Valley Lutheran Church



October Newsletter 2025

September 11, 2025

As presiding bishop of this church, I want to address yesterday's shooting in Utah. Charlie Kirk, known by millions for his views and videos supporting right-wing ideas, died by another senseless act of political violence. He was exercising his First Amendment right of free speech when he was shot and killed. This continues a long streak of political violence that shows no sign of subsiding. We've witnessed an attack on the husband of former House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, two attempts to assassinate President Donald Trump during last year's campaign, the murder of two Minnesota state lawmakers, an arson attack on the home of Pennsylvania's governor, a plot to kidnap Michigan's governor, and too many more.

As I wrote last year, after the attempt on President Trump's life in Butler, Pa., "God calls this church to say a definitive 'no' to political violence now and in the future. Political violence has a long history but no place in democracy. This church belongs to God, and our unity in Christ is a grace-filled and healing gift in a fractured society."

This church teaches that disagreement is healthy and can lead to greater understanding and cooperation. But we have lost that sense of respectful debate and have degenerated into a society that treats differing opinions as personal attacks, erasing the humanity of some and abandoning the gospel of Jesus Christ. We must recommit ourselves to reflecting what Christ taught us through acts of forgiveness, healing and new life. I continue to hold that "God's resolve for peace in human communities is unshakable."

In this moment, I urge all of us in this church to embrace God's call, to hear and embody the good news of Jesus Christ and to fulfill our roles as peacemakers through active civic engagement.

I am deeply troubled by incidents of racial profiling* that are happening across this country in the name of law enforcement and national security. Such inhumane treatment is being employed by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement in wanton immigration stops, targeting individuals based on race, ethnicity, language, occupation or location. In particular, I and many in this church lament the Supreme Court action of Sept. 8 in which the court granted a stay of a lower court's restraining order that had limited such enforcement practices in Los Angeles while judicial action is pending.

My concern is grounded in Scripture, ELCA social teaching and care for our neighbors. Scripture is clear: every human being is created in the image of God. Racial profiling denies that image and violates the dignity it confers. It is not only unjust — it is inhumane. This church's teaching is also clear, having expressed grave objections to patterns of racial, ethnic and religious profiling because it "stigmatizes those who are innocent of any offense" (ELCA social statement The Church and Criminal Justice: Hearing the Cries, p. 40). Every neighbor, regardless of immigration status, deserves safety, dignity and equal protection under the law. Racial profiling, a legacy of white supremacy, is rooted in the sin of racism (ELCA social statement Freed in Christ: Race, Ethnicity, and Culture, p. 5).

As your presiding bishop, I want to speak directly to the Latiné community. I want you to know that I and other leaders of this church see what is happening and join you in calling out this injustice. In particular, the Supreme Court's reversal of the stay is a dangerous shift, exposing the Latiné community and other vulnerable communities to discriminatory treatment that threatens civil liberties and undermines constitutional protections. Justice Sonia Sotomayor, in her response to the ruling, sounded this urgent alarm: "We should not have to live in a country where the Government can seize anyone who looks Latino, speaks Spanish, and appears to work a low wage job."

I want to be clear that, though this ruling effectively singles out the Latiné community, it also sets a precedent that will erode constitutional safeguards for all of us. I am reminded of the poem "First They Came," derived from a speech by German Pastor Martin Niemöller: "First they came for the socialists, and I did not speak out—because I was not a socialist. Then they came for the trade unionists, and I did not speak out — because I was not a trade unionist. Then they came for the Jews, and I did not speak out — because I was not a Jew. Then they came for me — and there was no one left to speak for me." This famous quotation illustrates how the systematic targeting of marginalized groups can escalate when people fail to defend others' rights, as happened when most people remained silent during the rise of Nazi persecution in Germany. It serves as a stark reminder of the consequences of quietism and inaction in the face of injustice.

To meet this moment, God calls us to advocacy. Guided by God's law in the Scriptures, which demand justice and seek the well-being of all, the ELCA calls upon policymakers and community leaders to:

• Honor or restore constitutional safeguards against racial and ethnic profiling.
• Reverse policies and practices that normalize discrimination or exclusion.
• Reaffirm a shared commitment to justice that upholds the worth of every neighbor.
• Work for an immigration system that protects the dignity of all.

In accompaniment and solidarity with our neighbors, use these AMMPARO resources to inform your ministry and protect the safety of our Latiné community:

- AMMPARO "Know Your Rights Information"
- "What Can Congregations Do to Prepare for Immigration Raids?"
- "Know Your Rights: If ICE Stops You in Public"
- "Know Your Rights: If ICE Visits Your Home"
- Freed in Christ: Race, Ethnicity, and Culture
- The Church and Criminal Justice: Hearing the Cries

* Racial profiling: "The use, typically by law enforcement, of a person's racial or ethnic characteristics in the decision to detain or question the person about potential criminal activity" (ELCA social statement The Church and Criminal Justice: Hearing the Cries, p. 51).

Praise Team News
The Praise Team will play in worship at Pleasant Valley at 9 am on October 5 and 26. They will lead worship that evening at the Chippewa Valley Correctional Treatment Facility (CVCTF) at 6:30 pm. Practices will be held on Wednesdays following worship.

Cleghorn Harvest Fest Booth
Thank you to everyone who helped set up, staff and tear down Pleasant Valley's booth at the Cleghorn Harvest Fest. Over 100 raffle tickets were sold, and with the help of a ten year old named Anna from Fall Creek, who was bored at her mom's booth and asked if she could help with our kids games, we awarded almost all of the kids prizes! (Note to self: next year put up a sign in the booth that indicates the kids games are free.)

Sharing the Dream in Guatemala (STDG) News
Lauren Vaske, Executive Director of STDG, will be in Eau Claire again this year to participate in the Global Market on November 8. Cards were recently from Keyla and Heber, the two Guatemalan students we are sponsoring. They are posted on the church's bulletin board.

H3 (Holy, Happy and Healthy)
H3 meets at 9:30 am on Tuesdays at Immanuel Lutheran in Eau Claire and on Zoom. The group is reading the book "Way of Love" by Norman Wirzba. Contact Kim Vlcek for more information.

RUTH (Rural Unity Through Hope)
The next meeting is October 20 at 6:30 pm at Peace Lutheran in Pigeon Falls and on Zoom. Kim Vlcek is the contact for the group.

W/ELCA News
The next Triennial Gathering is scheduled for July 16-19, 2026 in Des Moines, Iowa. Make plans to attend. More information is available at https://www.womenoftheelca.org/new-triennial-event-page

IV Hoodie for You
Are you receiving IV treatments, or do you know of someone who is? Then you or that person can receive an IV Hoodie …free of charge! An IV Hoodie has a zipper in the sleeve or in the chest for a port to help make treatments more comfortable. Monetary donations are welcome. If you'd like more information please call or text Ellen Hauser at 715-797-4354.

Thanks to our visiting Pastors and members this month who helped with worship.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Please join us for the fourth meeting to continue the conversation about the Synod Plan to Support Families at Risk of Separation. This time we will check up on one another's work, keep strengthening the "villages", hear from a guest speaker, and learn some updates about polices and laws that may affect us a church and also our neighbors.

I look forward to seeing you!

ELCA

Greetings!
Along with other congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, your church, Pleasant Valley Lutheran Church in Eleva, has been selected to participate in a national survey of U.S. congregations. This is the eighth such survey in the Faith Communities Today (FACT) series, begun in 2000. The surveys offer religious leaders of all traditions critical planning information about the changing nature of congregational life and how to respond to those changes effectively. Information, findings and reports from the FACT surveys are freely provided online at www.faithcommunitiestoday.org.
This letter is available in Español at https://resources.elca.org/office-of-the-secretary/2025-fact-survey-email-sp/.
This survey is also being conducted in partnership with the Exploring the Pandemic Impact on Congregations (EPIC) study, which is actively researching change and innovation in the U.S. religious landscape as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Learn more about this study at www.covidreligionresearch.org.
To fully assess the variety of congregations in the ELCA and across the United States, we need to hear from you. The survey can be completed by a pastor or deacon, a church administrator, a staff member or a well-informed lay leader. If any of the questions do not apply to your religious tradition or congregation, feel free to skip them. The survey should take approximately 20-25 minutes to complete.
You can find the survey online at covidreligionstudy.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_80TAvXFgSqbFuPc.
The responses you provide about your individual congregation are completely confidential and will contribute to a better overall understanding of ELCA churches and how they operate. Please complete this survey by Friday, Nov. 21. Aggregate results will be shared online at www.faithcommunitiestoday.org in the coming months.
If you have questions regarding this survey, please contact research@elca.org. Thank you for your participation, and blessings on your ministry!

Disability Ministries

Webinar: "Creating Accessible Spaces on a Budget"

Every church should be a place where everyone feels welcome and included — regardless of ability. But making your facilities more accessible doesn't have to break the bank.

Join us on Monday, Nov. 17, at 7 p.m. Central time for this practical and inspiring webinar designed specifically for churches seeking to improve accessibility with limited resources. We'll explore affordable strategies to enhance physical, sensory and digital accessibility in your church buildings and programs. From simple upgrades to creative adaptations, you'll gain tools and ideas that can be implemented right away — no large renovation budget required.

In this workshop, you'll learn:

- Low-cost improvements that make a big impact.
- How to prioritize accessibility changes.
- Ways to engage your congregation in accessibility efforts.

For registration, go to this linked form: https://forms.office.com/r/QYdvsAUJT6
